The workshops in all the partners' countries

In the last period the project' partners have realised the planned national workshops. The general aim of the workshops was that the participants of the International Peer Education Seminar should try out their new skills in organizing and implementing of Peer-Group-Workshops. The National Peer Group Workshops were addressing the final beneficiaries, youth at risk and NEETs.

National workshops

All the workshops have obtained good results and were very satisfying both for trainers both for the young people attending them. All the participants enjoyed to have attended the workshop run by peers and would recommend to have such workshops more often. Some of them were also interested in such a peer training as they would also like to try out this new role. They mentioned that it was a nice setting to discuss their own experiences from a peer view.

Good results

Despite the lack of experience of the team-leaders, all the workshops have finished successfully and, also, it was very impressive to see how the Peer Leaders developed through these tasks not only with some new skills but also in their personality. They showed in fact a higher self-esteem and strengthened to take over more responsibility for their situation and aims.
